Nine habits of financially savvy women

Financial independence for women is not a luxury, but a necessity. Instead of being intimidated by managing money, women should feel empowered to take control of their finances. Women live longer than men by at least 5 years, and a study done by PwC shows that South African women are consistently paid less than their male counterparts across the different industries, and coupled with the fact that women delay long-term savings; it is a recipe for financial disaster!

Here are 9 habits of financially savvy women... Read more

The six levels of mentoring

For many individuals the chances of finding a mentor are slim because their definition of mentorship is too narrow, says Michael Hyatt, the founder and CEO of Michael Hyatt & Company, a leadership development firm... Read more

Legal talk: Bullying and the Law

Bullying is unwanted, aggressive behaviour among school aged children that involves a real or perceived power imbalance. The behavior is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time. Bullying includes physical attacks, purposeful alienation, spreading false rumours, verbal abuse and various forms of... Read more

Healthy YOU

Join us for a wellness day event as we kick off the new year with a focus on self-care and overall health and well-being. This day is dedicated to promoting healthy habits and providing practical tips to help you start the year on the right foot.

We will have a variety of activities, including a Discovery Vitality screening (50% of the screening cost for non-Discovery members), dietician, massage therapist, a wills consultant and more.

There will also be vendors on site with products and services related to wellness and self-care.

Please RSVP by 3 February 2023 to admin@gwii.co.za to reserve your spot and advise on which medical aid scheme you are on.

We look forward to seeing you there and supporting your journey to a healthier, happier you.
