A message from the GWII President this Women's Month

In honour of Women's Month, FAnews, on behalf of Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII), caught up with Kyndra Robertson, President of GWII, to hear her thoughts on empowerment, leadership, and the continued journey of women in the insurance industry. Here, she shares a heartfelt message of inspiration for all GWII women this Women's Day... Read more

GWII committee member's inspiring words of wisdom, this Women's Day

In celebration of Women's Day, the Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) Committee Members share powerful insights on what strength means to them, advice for future women leaders, and the personal significance of Women's Month. From resilience and authenticity to empathy and purpose, their voices highlight the diverse ways women lead, uplift, and inspire. Here are their reflections... Read more

GWII leaderwalk - why we must invest in social change

On 17 July, GWII hosted a thought-provoking Leaderwalk session themed ‘ Why We Must Invest in Social Change,’ at The Venue Summit Place.

The event was centred around the powerful insights shared by our distinguished speaker, Dr Nonkululeko Boikhutso, CEO of the Nelson Mandela Children’s Hospital... Read more

The power of presence and why returning to the office is good for the psyche

For much of the post-pandemic period, the narrative around returning to the office has focused heavily on resistance, mainly surrounding concerns over flexibility, maintaining a balanced work-life approach and productivity. But lost in this conversation is a crucial dimension: the... Read more

Balancing work and pregnancy: navigating the challenges with confidence

Pregnancy is an exciting yet challenging period in a woman’s life, especially when balancing professional responsibilities. While many women successfully manage both work and pregnancy, challenges such as workplace discrimination, inadequate maternity policies, and physical and emotional... Read more

Our fearless guide to self-love

We're all aware of the theory of self-love, but how often do we put it into practice? Consciously and consistently showing ourselves love is not a luxury, it's a necessity – especially in a time when our resilience is being tested like never before. Far from being an airy-fairy concept, psychologists attest to the fact that self-love and self-compassion... Read more

Breaking the silence: addressing the stigma around mental health in South Africa

Despite growing awareness globally, mental health in South Africa remains a topic often shrouded in stigma, misunderstanding, and neglect. For a country with such a diverse population, the deep-rooted misconceptions about mental illness persist, making it one of the most significant barriers to treatment and support for those in need. The... Read more

Legal talk: What do you do when someone dies? A technical guide

Death is an inevitable part of life, yet few of us are prepared for the emotional and practical realities it brings. Learn more about what to do when someone passes away and how Old Mutual can help you prepare... Read more
