GWII President's reflections of 2025

The year 2025 ushered in a new chapter for Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) as Kyndra Robertson took the helm as President. Now, with her term nearing its close, FAnews sat down with Kyndra to unpack the milestones, challenges, and lessons that have shaped her leadership - and to hear her vision... Read more

CPD Session - The Role of Digital Evidence in Legal Proceedings - From Discovery to Court, How Digital Evidence is Gathered, Preserved, and Used

On 5 November, a highly engaging Continuous Professional Development (CPD) session on 'The Role of Digital Evidence in Legal Proceedings - From Discovery to Court: How Digital Evidence is Gathered, Preserved, and Used' was held.

The session, led by Prof. Danny Myburgh, a leader in the fields of digital forensics and cybersecurity, provided crucial insights into the intersection of law and technology. As a recognised authority... Read more

GWII wraps up 2025 with a “Secret Garden” celebration

Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) celebrated the end of the year in style with the highly anticipated “Secret Garden” event, held on 13th November 2025 at The Milk Bar Parkmore, set within the serene surroundings of George Lea Park (Sandton Sports Club)... Read more

GWII... what a year it has been!

The year 2025 was off to a strong and inspiring start for GWII. At GWII, our mission is to empower women in insurance by promoting professional advancement, personal development, and leadership. We deliver this through thought-provoking events, leadership programmes, and networking opportunities – while also giving back to society through partnerships with aligned charities and initiatives. We remain committed to creating opportunities that take members out of their comfort zones, connect them with like-minded professionals, and provide both personal and professional growth... Mirror, mirror: women need to stay strong to overcome financial barriers

It's important to recognise that financial independence is a key pillar of gender equality. It's essential for women to stay on track with prioritising their finances. While many financial barriers are beyond women's control, self-doubt and a reluctance to seek expert advice often stands in the way of financial... Read more

Decoding the gender gap: the truth about insurance rates for women

Car insurance premiums have long been a topic of debate, with one common perception that women pay cheaper rates than men. This belief is often rooted in stereotypes about driving behaviour, such as the assumption that women are safer drivers than men. However, the reality is... Read more

Legal Talk: Family responsibility leave

Only an employee who has worked for longer than four months for the same employer, and who is employed on more than four days per week with the same employer, qualifies for family responsibility leave. Family Responsibility Leave covers specific requirements... Read more

As we bid farewell to the year 2025, and get ready to welcome the holiday season, we have a message for you, our members...

IT'S TIME TO TAKE A BREAK!

Here's to rest, laughter, and a well-deserved break, ladies -
GWII wishes you a joyful
December!

Happy Holidays

As the year comes to a close, we celebrate the connections, achievements, and moments that have made it special. Whether you're enjoying festive gatherings, peaceful reflection, or a sun-soaked getaway, we hope this season brings you joy and serenity.

May your homes and hearts be filled with laughter, love, and meaningful memories. As we step into the new year, may it bring fresh opportunities, success, and happiness in abundance.

With heartfelt wishes from
Gauteng Women in Insurance.
