AUGUST IS WOMEN'S MONTH

Together, let's celebrate and honor the incredible women who inspire change, break barriers, and lead with strength every day.

A message from the GWII President this Women's Month

In honour of Women's Month, FAnews, on behalf of Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII), caught up with Velene Peters, President of the GWII, to hear her thoughts on empowerment, leadership, and the continued journey of women in the insurance industry. Here, she shares a heartfelt message of inspiration for all GWII women this Women's Month.

"The greatest barrier women continue to face is often the one that exists in the minds and assumptions of society... Read more

“The industry needs your voice, your leadership, and your perspective.” A Women’s Month message from Darryl Grater, Chief Growth Officer, Discovery Insure

As we celebrate Women’s Month at the GWII Women’s Day event, Grace, Grit and Growth: A Season to Bloom, Platinum Sponsor Discovery Insure shares a message. Darryl Grater, Chief Growth Officer at Discovery Insure & Vitality Drive International, notes: “Across the industry, a... Read more

Executive outlook: a 10-year vision for women in our industry

In the lead-up to our upcoming Women’s Day event, “Grace, Grit and Growth: A Season to Bloom,” GWII invited our valued Silver Sponsors to share their perspectives on a simple but powerful question: What do you hope women in our industry will achieve, experience or change over the next decade? Their responses offer a collective vision... Leadership voices: the change that matters for the advancement of women in our industry

In the lead-up to our upcoming Women’s Day event, “Grace, Grit and Growth: A Season to Bloom,” we asked our Bronze Sponsor leaders: From your perspective, what is one meaningful change you believe will most support the advancement of women in our industry in the coming years? Their responses highlight the key actions, mindsets and structural changes... Read more

Industry perspectives on practical steps to accelerate women's growth and leadership

As part of our Women's Month reflections leading up to the upcoming Women's Day event, "Grace, Grit and Growth: A Season to Bloom," we invited our Activation Sponsors to share their views on a key question focused on action and impact. We asked: What is one practical step organisations can take today to better support women's growth and... Read more

GWII Leaderwalk: Leading Through Reinvention

On 16 July 2026, Gauteng Women in Insurance (GWII) hosted another inspiring Leaderwalk session at The Venue Green Park, bringing together aspiring and established leaders for an engaging conversation on leadership, innovation and the future of financial services. This edition featured Cheslyn Jacobs, CEO of GoTyme Bank, who led a thought-provoking discussion titled Leading Through Reinvention: Building Inclusive... Read more

Menopause Explained: Symptoms, Stages, Nutrition, Supplements and Options

Menopause is a natural stage of life that every woman will experience, yet it remains widely misunderstood. Understanding what happens in the body, when it starts, and how symptoms can be managed is essential in supporting women through this transition with confidence and dignity. Menopause is defined as... Read more

Legal talk: Dealing with Constructive Dismissal in South Africa

We all want to build a successful career and thrive in the workplace, right? The office is meant to be a place where everyone should be able to put their best foot forward and excel in the profession they chose. And that's... Read more

TO: ... with the Window:
A Safari, ... ure, and Serious Court Drama

A surprise birthc... safari turned into a legal battle when a guest falls from a moving game vehicle and through a window onto a tar road. The tour operator argued that because an indemnity had been signed, it was not their problem. But was it duly signed? And does public policy and the Consumer Protection Act have something to say about it?
